

We live in the world,
our questions create
– David Cooperrider

You Ask, We Answer!

Science Reporter announces a new column for the curious minds

Here's your chance to ask those crazy questions you were always afraid to ask. We at Science Reporter will try to provide the answers.

It is not the answer but the question that enlightens
– Eugene Ionesc

The important thing is not to stop questioning – Einstein

The crazy questions should be

- related to science
- not academic, or picked up from text-books
- related to the interesting world around you
- born out of genuine curiosity
- short, crisp, to-the-point

Because answers exist only to questions
– Krishnamurthy
